

Types of Membership

FULL – one time purchase price of $499 plus dues. Allows normal usage (see *below) at Country Village.

Normal Usage. Two weeks free.

We do something different than most membership parks in that we allow you to stay after your free weeks. If you decide to do that, you can stay on the same site on a space available basis at regular park rates.

Coast to Coast and RPI both work the same way. You may visit the affiliated parks twice a year for up to seven nights each. The only park in either system that you may not visit is the one in Gunnison Colorado, because it is within 125 miles of us. When you visit these other campgrounds, you pay $9 a night if it is a Coast to Coast park and $8 a night if it is RPI. There are approx. 500 Coast to Coast parks and 350 RPI parks. The other difference between Coast to Coast and RPI is the amount of time that you must be out between visits. Coast to Coast is 30 days and RPI is 7 days. You do not have to join either of these affiliations, but you must have a home park membership in order to join them.
